

The Postponed 26th International Wayfarer Rally

Port d'Arradon, Brittany NOW Sept 1st – 8th 2022

Gilles Bruneau and Thierry Grenier found 'the most beautiful and magical place in Brittany' for the International Rally which has been re-scheduled for 2022.

There are many interesting places to sail to within the well protected bay area. For those with a more adventurous spirit, there is the possibility of an independent sea trip westwards to La Roche Bernard.

For full details and costs see the cruising section at: www.wayfarer.org.uk

Saint-Pierre-Quiberon
Quiberon

Both camping/RUV pitches and well-equipped cabins are available at the nearby Camping des Allées site, which includes an on-site swimming pool. See: www.camping-allee.com

Boat launching and recovery is from a wide slipway, with a gently sloping concrete ramp that gives easy access to the sailing area.

Above, Port d'Arradon, looking south to an idyllic region of islands in a safe and child friendly sailing area. Right, just one of the beaches on the many islands.

No-one can be sure of what the situation will be next summer, but book before 1st April to secure a place and the opportunity to sail an area you will not experience anywhere in the UK. For a booking form contact: Gilles Bruneau: gb.distribution@wanadoo.fr

